DEVOTED TO MAKING ADA A LARGER AND MORE PROGRESSIVE CITY

VOLUME 8.

ADA, OKLAHOMA MONDAY EVENING, MAY 29, 1911

NUMBER

THE SENATE MUST VOTE

RECIPROCITY AND OTHER MEASURES MUST BE SETTLED BEFORE HOUSE WILL AGREE TO ADJOURN.

Washington, May 28.—Investigations of the steel trust, the sugar trust and the expenditures and methods of governmental departments will comprise all the activities of the house of representatives during the early part of the week.

With the democratic wool tariff bill promised for Friday, the house will hold no important sessions until then and investigating committees will have opportunity to push important inquiries that were started last week.

Efforts to Dispose of Subject.
The Lorimer case probably will come to a vote in the senate Monday as to the methods to be adopted in making another investigation of the Illinois Senatorial election. The La Follette resolution to name a special committee and the Martin and Dillingham substitutes, leaving the inquiry to the regular senate committee on privileges and elections, are before that body for further debate tomorrow, and efforts are being made to have the subject disposed of before the day's adjournment.

The steel trust investigation, which began with John W. Gates on the stand Saturday, will be resumed Tuesday with an other important witness Chairman E. H. Gary of the United States Steel Corporation being among those summoned.

The sugar trust committee will meet Thursday to take up its work. The committees that are to investigate the department of justice and the department of commerce and labor are to meet tomorrow, while the committee investigating the postoffice department will also continue its sessions.

House Leaders Plainly Troubled.
The democratic house leaders plainly are troubled over the doubtful situation in the senate. Speaker Clark has declared, however, that while he does not like the hot weather in Washington, there must be a vote in the senate on Canadian reciprocity if congress has to "sizzle" through burning suns "until snow flies."

As to the senate action on the farmers free list bill, popular election of senators, reapportionment, statehood for Arizona and New Mexico and wool tariff revision, the democrats are believed to be not so insistent. There is an assurance now that the popular election of senators measure will be disposed of in the senate June 12, the date fixed for a vote.

The democratic house leaders have made threats that they would demand a vote on the tariff measures in the upper house, but it is declared on substantial authority that if the senate indicates clearly it will not consider the tariff bills during the extra session, the house will not demand continuation of a sweltering process to force action at this time.

Postal Deficit Is Wiped Out.
Washington, May 28.—For the first time in the history of the service, it is said, the deficit in the postoffice department has been entirely wiped out and $1,000,000 surplus for the current fiscal year ending June 30 next is in the treasury to the department's credit.

Postmaster General Hitchcock last night signed a warrant returning to the Secretary of the Treasury $3,000,000 the last amount set apart from the public funds to assist in defraying the expenses of the postal service for the present fiscal year.

Reforms in the financial system, it is stated, have made the refund possible.

An accounting plan which was adopted about a year ago insures the prompt deposit in the treasury of postal funds not required immediately for disbursement in postoffices, thus making available for use by the department several millions of dollars that, under former practice, would be tied up in postoffices.

Under the old system it required approximately $10,000,000 to finance the postal service.

In making the refund to the treasury Mr. Hitchcock said he was satisfied that the postal revenue would be more than sufficient to defray the postal expenses during the remainder of the fiscal year and that July would show a surplus considerably over $1,000,000.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF HORSE STEALING

Saturday Jno. Morrison, wanted in Swanson county on a charge of horse stealing, was captured at Calvin by Sheriff Mitchell and turned over to the officers of Swanson to be taken back to the scene of the alleged crime.

He had disposed of the team for $300, which was rather below its real worth, and the team was recovered at the time he was captured. Sheriff Mitchell struck the trail here and followed the man to Guertle, Non and finally to Calvin before overtaking him.

Governor Makes Pardon Ruling.
Oklahoma City, Ok., May 28.—Owing to the flood of pardon applications to the governor's office, Gov. Cruce has made a new rule, strict adherence to which will be required in the future.

"Inasmuch as it is impossible for me to investigate the merits of the various cases that come before me," said the governor, "where parties are requesting a pardon or parole, and in order that no imposition may be perpetrated by recommendations, petitions or otherwise, and that the public may be advised and given an opportunity to be heard, I find it necessary to make this rule:

"In the future before applications for pardon or parole will be entertained by me, the applicant asking for same must publish such intention in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where the crime was committed, for a period of not less than thirty days, and proof of such application must be furnished with the application."

R. P. Ford has returned from Ardmore much pleased with the prospect of getting a judgment for the redemption claims prosecuted on behalf of his wife.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

GRADUALLY NEARING ONE HUNDRED MARK—MEETING TOMORROW EVENING.

The Chamber of Commerce continues to grow in numbers and interest. At the meeting to be held tomorrow evening a great boost is expected in the way of new members, for every man present at the last meeting agreed to put at least one new member on the list. The meeting will be full of enthusiasm and it is to be hoped that the largest attendance on record will be had.

COURT MAY DECIDE CAPITAL CASE TODAY

Washington, May 28.—Tomorrow is the last decision day of the supreme court before adjournment until next October. It appears to be generally accepted that the tobacco trust decision will be handed down, and the current guess is that the decision in the main will go against the government.

It is also expected that the court will decide the Oklahoma capital case and the members of the Oklahoma delegation in congress rather look for an upholding of the removal of the capital from Guthrie to Oklahoma City.

Heavy Rain at Chickasha.

Chickasha, Ok., May 28.—A heavy rain fell over the west portion of this county today. This is the first rain in six weeks. The rain came too late to help the wheat and oats, but will save the corn and cotton.

Newspaper Plant Burned.

Coalgate, Okla., May 26.—The plant of the Bromide World, a recently established paper, was destroyed by fire Wednesday. Bryce, Hickman and Stephens were the owners. The loss will reach $1,500, with no insurance.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR PRESIDENT BRILES

Saturday evening, about nine o'clock several members of the faculty and 200 or more of the students of the normal treated President Briles to a pleasant surprise by way of celebrating his re-election to the presidency of the normal. They gathered in force at the normal and around his house and made him come out and receive their congratulations and make a speech suited to the occasion. A liberal supply of punch had been prepared and was served to everybody present.

Diaz a Scrapper to the Last.

Vera Cruz, Mex., May 27.—General Diaz, himself took command of the federal soldiers, who repulsed a large force of rebels, while the former president of Mexico was on his way from Mexico City to Vera Cruz. The latest estimates place the number of rebel dead at 20 and the wounded unknown.

The attack on the train in which General Diaz was traveling, and the escorting trains, occurred at Tepic. With General Diaz at the time were Senora Diaz, Colonel Porfirio Diaz, his son, and the latter's family. The trains were proceeding slowly with a pilot engine in the lead, the military train next, then the former president's special and last of all, a wrecking train, to repair tracks if necessary.

The rebels came into the open as the trains were approaching Tepic. They numbered 500, and began a fierce attack. The federals at once detained and used rapid fire guns.

General Diaz ordered his special car to proceed nearer to the scene and as it drew up he alighted, and with pistol in hand ran forward to aid his defenders. The federals' quick action with the rapid fire guns, however, had taken the rebels by surprise and they soon were in full retreat. The trains then proceeded at high speed.

FAMILY ROW
COSTS $57.80

Sunday afternoon a family scrap took place in the Hird community in which three brothers by the name of Harris handled each other a trifle rough. The fight is said to have come up over the use of water from a well on the place being worked by J. S. Harris, the men taking up the row after it had been started by some of their women folks. One of the brothers was battered up considerably, about the head. After warrants had been sworn out all the way around Justice Brown assessed fines and costs on the bunch that totaled $57.80.

The three taking a hand in the scrap were J. S. Albert and J. H. Harris.

Greased Wagon with Nitroglycerine.

Beggs, Okla., May 27.—The can of nitro-glycerine floating in the river near here, which two boys, mistaking for a can filled with mud, shot at it with a Winchester rifle, resulting in the death of one and injury to the other, was thrown into the river by Henry Jackson, a negro.

Jackson found the can and thinking it was filled with crude oil, removed one of the wheels of his wagon and greased the axle with "oil." He then banged the wheel back on the axle. A part of the wagon was wrecked and Jackson was knocked unconscious.

Coalgate Merchant Robbed.

Coalgate, Okla., May 29.—Morris Milstein, prominent merchant of this city, was chloroformed by burglars at his home last night and money and jewels to the value of about $700 were taken. There seems to be no clue to the robbers.

KATY SENDS CHECK FOR 1910 TAXES

Tax paying time has come again for those who paid only half their assessment the first of the year, and this morning the Katy railroad came across with its contribution of $5,916.29.

Treasurer Erwin states that individuals are rather slow about coming through, although they but a short time left in which to settle. All taxes must be paid before June 15, or else go delinquent. As there will be a rush towards the last, Mr. Erwin urges all who can possibly do so to come in and settle before the rush begins.

WIFE MAY PUT FEET IN HUSBAND'S FACE

Pittsburg, Pa., May 29.—A jury here decided today that a woman has a perfect right to sleep at the foot of the bed with her feet resting on her husband's face.

Mrs. Stella Derringer had sued her husband, W. B. Derringer, a wealthy wagon manufacturer, because, she said, he repeatedly struck her.

Derringer testified that his wife took delight in sleeping at the foot of the bed with her feet resting on his face and doing many other things to which he was not accustomed.

Among the other things he assured the court that his wife had thrown hot water in his face while he was asleep; had kicked him on the shins; had smashed a sugar bowl over his head, thrown seven pounds of flour over him, broke window panes in a fit of anger and ejected from the house a friend of his, whom he had brought home to sleep.

The jury decided against the husband. The court postponed sentence until June 3 to enable husband and wife to patch up their differences.

The Rain Was General.

Oklahoma City, May 29.—With a rainfall registering more than .68 of an inch Sunday and Sunday night, and the forecast calling for more rain Monday or Tuesday, the long, dry dusty spell in Oklahoma City has come to an end for awhile at least. Sunday's rainfall is the greatest registered by the weather bureau since last February, when nearly three inches fell.

Rain began to fall in Oklahoma City between three and four o'clock Sunday afternoon. The temperature, immediately before the rain started, registered over 77 degrees. The maximum temperature for the day was 87 degrees, at 1:30, one degree lower than that of last year. The minimum temperature was 66 degrees, at 6 a. m. It was cooler last night and this morning.

According to reports received at the

THE BEST RAIN SINCE FEBRUARY

The best rain since February fell last night. Prof. Ralph Brooks, the government observer for Ada, states that 1.3 inches fell. The rain of the week before was only .8 of an inch. The rain of last night was sufficient to put considerable water in the creeks and ravines, as well as a good season in the ground.

weather bureau, there was a general rainfall over the central, northern, western, and southwestern parts of Oklahoma. The Panhandle of Oklahoma was visited with a heavy rain.

The Panhandle of Texas, New Mexico, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska, also received heavy rains. In many cities of Kansas the rainfall registered from two to three inches.

Prof. G. T. Howerton returned Saturday from his extended trip to his old home in Mississippi. He improved greatly in health while gone and gained some eight or ten pounds in weight. He reports that Mississippi was never so prosperous as now and that prospects for a big crop this year could not be better.

W. H. Crowder of Shawnee, representing the American Title Co., of Muskogee, is here today on business connected with his company.

THE FALL OF DIAZ.

The last act in the Mexican drama in which Diaz has been the central figure for so many years is over, and he who was a year ago inducted into the presidential office amid the acclaim of the multitude is now on his way to a haven of refuge in a foreign land. It seems a pity that one whose whole life has been spent in tumult and turmoil should not have been permitted to end his few remaining years or months in peace and quiet. Born before the Mexican republic had been placed on a solid basis, while Spain still had an idea of attempting to reconquer her lost province, Diaz has from the beginning played a prominent part in the affairs of the nation. Called to the front to aid in driving out the French who would have established an empire on the ruins of the republic, and later leading the revolution that elevated him to supreme power and then establishing order in a country where anarchy reigned supreme, his task has been one of immense magnitude. That he was a remarkable man, goes without saying.
No other man could have maintained himself in power for over thirty years as he did, and at the same time firmly established the credit of the nation and won the respect of the civilized world.

His methods have seemed harsh when measured by the American standard, but he has had a turbulent and an ignorant people to govern, a people that has not yet recovered from three centuries of Spanish oppression, and a people to whom liberty means license. He deserves credit for what he has accomplished even though Mexico has made the experiment of expelling him and installing another in his stead.

The libel suit of Judge T. S. Cobb against the Oklahoman resulting from the publication of an article concerning Cobb's alleged connection with land grafts in Seminole county and the ouster proceedings instituted by Attorney General West, resulted in a victory for the paper. The News knows nothing of the facts of the case and does not know whether also jealously guard the good opin-

Cobb was guilty or not, but is pleased to note that the paper won out.
If a newspaper is to be sued for every item of news it publishes it will soon have nothing left except marriage notices, obituaries and baseball news to publish. Of course no reputable paper is going to publish anything of a derogatory nature simply out of malice and for the sake of being sensational, but if a man objects to being mentioned in connection with shady deals of any kind, he had better steer clear of any such. Any reputable paper would much prefer to have something good to say about a man.

Jno. D. Rockefeller has always been regarded as representing about all there is in the way of shrewd finan-ciering, but the testimony of Jno. W.
Gates before the congressional committee investigating the steel trust, the oil king was skinned out of several millions by Andrew Carnegie when he essayed to embark in the steel business a few years back. Andy finally managed to buy in the plant of his rival at forty cents on the dollar. The ease with which the Scotch man accomplished this had much to do with the organization of the steel trust which paid Uncle Andy $320,- 000,000 for his holdings which had a real value of only $160,000,000.

The Stingiest Man in Schnectady.
The stingiest miser in Schnectady was Deacon Chase. He was stingy all his life, and even died stingy. When his wife died he bought a double gravestone, and had his own name put on the other side. The day he died he limped and staggered into the barber shop to get shaved.

"You—charge—ten cents—to shave —live men, don't you?" asked the deacon.

"Yes, that is our price," replied the barber.

"What—you charge—to shave—dead men?" gasped the deacon.

"One dollar," said the barber, wondering what he meant.

"Then—shave me—quick," said the deacon nervously eyeing the watch which the doctor held in his hand.

He was too weak to speak further, but the doctor interpreted aright the question that was in his eyes.

"Fifteen minutes," replied the doctor. "You will live fifteen minutes more."

The deacon made a feeble motion, as with a lather brush, and the barber was at his work in a jiffy. He performed his task with neatness and dispatch and, although the deacon had several sinking spells of an alarming nature yet he bore up to the end. When the last stroke of the razor was given, the deacon gasped, in tones of satisfaction:

"That'll do—ninety—cents—saved," and immediately expired.

LOYALTY OF AFRICAN NATIVE

He Had Been One of Livingstone's Boys and Preferred to Die
by His Lord.

While journeying through central Africa once, after several days of severe marching, the men of Alfred J.
Swann's caravan failed to reach camp.
He returned to them with water and assistance, and finding the carts with only half their crew, he asked where the heavy load was, and they replied,
"Miles behind." It was on this journey that he witnessed a remarkable instance of the endurance and loyalty of a black man.

Fearing the men would be starved, writes Mr. Swann in "Fighting the Slave-Hunters in Central Africa," we pressed on toward them, and finally discovered the load drawn up under a bush. Searching round for traces of the crew, I heard a voice faintly call out:

"I am alive, but give me water!"

On looking into the bush, we discovered the leader, sheltered from the sun, and after giving him water, I asked:

"Where are the others?"

"Gone on to camp," he replied, "for food and water."

"Why did you not go?"

"No, master, I could not leave the boat section. My name is Mahaububu.
I was one of Livingstone's boys. I should have died by the load. I cut off the hide lashings and ate them, and the roots I dug up and sucked for moisture."

Let no man question, concludes Mr.
Swann, the ability of black men to perform loyal service after evidence of such heroic conduct.—Youth's Companion.

To Save Time.

He simply couldn't help it. He was born lazy. As a rule, if not sleepy, he could get through a shave in about 25 minutes. But today, after only 14 hours' sleep, he appeared even more sluggish than ever. As he applied the lather to his customer's beard, his brush lingered haltingly, as though loath to leave the stubby chin to which it was being applied. The customer was a patient man, and stood this for a considerable while. But at last his patience began to ooze, and he interrupted a 40 winks' interval with a cough.

"Sere, lad," he suggested. "A've an idea. Haud your hand, keep the brush still, an' A'll wag ma head for ye!"

A SKEPTIC.

"I love you more than life," he said;
"Without you I should wish to die.
The sun would cease to shine overhead,
The stars cease blazing in the sky."

"And what about the winds?" asked she;
"Would they knock off and cease to blow?"

The streams that murmur to the sea—
Would they back up and cease to flow?

He left her in the dewy eve,
And thought, what time he scratched
his head;

"I cannot more than half believe She thought I meant the things I said."

HE'D TACKLED 'EM BEFORE.

Barzaw Bill—Say, pardner, thor's a bude from ther east in Lasso Lou's saloon. Let's go over an' lick him.
Alkali Ike—Not on your life. He might be one of them football players.

The Difference.

The ancients from the moderns
Have one difference, we have read;
The moderns earn their living,
While the ancients urned their dead.

Sour Grapes.

Miss Woodbe (who lost)—Your husband is evidently a bigamist. You should apply for a divorce at once.

Mrs. Gotham (who won)—Why, what do you mean?

Miss Woodbe—Well, he has been telling it around that he had married both beauty and brains.

Wanted to Be Happy.

"I suppose you want me to look as pleasant as possible?" said the sister.

"Certainly, sir," replied the photographer. "And I'll have to ask you for a small deposit in advance."

"What's that for?"

"That's so that I can look pleasant, too."

Sweets to the Sweet.

"Willie, what are you eating?"
"Candy."

"Where did you get it?"
"Bought it."

"Where did you get the money?"
"Your beau gave it to me when I saw him kiss your maid."

The Recourse.

"My father will not allow me to marry you," said the tearful maiden to her fond lover. "He says you are too much in the air about your business."

"Then, darling," said the young aviator, "come fly with me."

No Need.

"I wonder," said the casual visitor at the police court, to the clerk, "that you seem to take no interest in the weather forecast here."

"We don't have to," replied the clerk. "All days are fine days in this court."

BEATING IT.

Lady—Here's the carpet. Now beat it.

Weary—Yes'm. (Beats it.)

Vain Words.

O frost, be warm; dear snow, don't fall;
And shrieking winter wind be mute.
Remember, what I wear is all I have to wear: my outing suit.

A Marked Likeness.

"The young boxer you were trying conclusions with resembles his father very strongly in his way of fighting, doesn't he?"

"Oh, yes; quite a striking resemblance."

Before and After.

"What is Mary doing for a living now?"

"She is posing for pictures that will be used to advertise a beauty wash."

"And who is posing for the 'after taking' pictures?"

Hebdominal.

"Some people take their religion as some other people do their baths."

"And how is that?"
"About once a week."

TALE OF GRAFT IN NEW YORK

New Man in Office Who Ignorantly Demanded $500 and Might Have Had $15,000.

This is a little story of New York graft, according to the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star. Unfortunately, the names may not be used. But it has been the custom of a corporation in this city to pay a sort of retaining fee to the holder of a certain political office, just to be let alone. The corporation heads did not ask anything else from the officeholder. They merely did not want to be prodded by crusades which presumably had an origin in a desire for reform. The graft payment for years had been $10,000. "We'll likely have to pay more, now that So-and-so is in office," said they, when a certain man was elected. "He has the name of being very grasping."

So they sent an intermediary to the newly elected officeholder, with power to negotiate. They were willing to pay $15,000, if necessary, but not a penny more. The usual preliminaries were gone through. "Your company will have to come over," said the officeholder. "I'm no cheap man. I know you've been paying right along, and you'll have to pay me more than you have been giving up to this office in the past. When I go grafting I go right." And he swelled up and looked very important. The intermediary was frightened. He asked very humbly how much the officeholder would demand.

"Not a penny less than $500 a year," said the officeholder, sternly.

The sum was paid, and it was not until the officeholder had been out of office for months that he learned the scale on which previous payments had been made. The information actually sent him into a decline. He grieved so over it that he really lost his health. If one mentions a large sum of money in his presence nowadays he's apt to burst into tears.

IN THE MATTER OF APPLAUSE

Clapping the Hands Is a Poor Method of Showing We Are Deeply Moved.

There is a place and time for manual acclamation, but it is not always in season or appropriate. It is at best a poor way of manifesting approval. A thoughtful person who has just listened to a fine performance of a symphony or a stirring apostrophe from an orator must feel that to bring one's hands together repeatedly and noisily is a lame and impotent method of showing how deeply one has been affected. But no better method, as yet, has been devised.

As a matter of fact, as there are thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears, so there are emotions roused sometimes by the performance of music which seem to us to transcend any possible outward demonstration: we are so deeply moved that we are silenced. This result is not to be confused—as may easily happen—with a failure in appreciation. It is quite the contrary.

Applause, spontaneous and unforced, is a great inspiration to one who appears in public and through any medium is attempting to make his cause prevail or his message heard.
The applause of a hired clique, the prolonged artificial enthusiasm when a standard-bearer is nominated at a political convention, is a very different matter. Applause means nothing if it is inspired by any other motive than appreciation and the desire to indicate cordial and disinterested approval.

Caught the Lion's Eye.

A middle aged man stopped in front of one of the lion cages in the Central park menagerie and gazed intently at the head of the old animal that was lying down near the iron bars, prefares the New York Sun. After keeping his eyes on the inmate of the cage for several minutes he made passes with his hand toward it. The lion's head gradually went down onto his paws and he appeared to be asleep.

"Great is science!" the visitor said.
"The books say one can hypnotize any wild beast if near enough to hold his eye while casting the spell, and I have succeeded."

"Hypnotize nothing! That old lion has been blind in his near eye for years," the keeper said.

Antiquity of Tobacco.

The idea that tobacco has only been known in Europe since the discovery of America is incorrect. In fact, the Medes and Persians a long time before our era smoked narghiles, as ancient scriptures prove. A philologist has suggested that the Greeks and Romans smoked tobacco at least in their colonies. In the Malay archipelago the use of cigars and cigarettes is said to date much further back than the discovery of America. The word "cigar" seems to show that man's solace and comfort did not originate in the West Indies, but is most likely derived from "sakara," an Arab word meaning smoke.

A Fighting Chance.

The advanced English class had been reading The Legend of Sleepy Hollow, and had reached the dramatic line where it said, "A plashy tramp caught the sensitive ear of Ichabod."
"Put it into your own words," asked the teacher of a promising-looking student.

"Why," he replied promptly, "the dirty tramp got a hold of his sore ear."—Judge.

HOW MUCH Is a Regular Cus- tomer Worth to Your Store?

Suppose you could BUY 100 additional REGULAR CUSTOMERS during the next week or two—customers who,
for years and years to come, would make a MAJORITY of their purchases of goods in your line at YOUR STORE? What would each of these 100 customers be worth to you?

It is, we think, quite likely that if such an investment were possible, you'd eagerly pay TWICE AS MUCH as it would cost you to secure these 100 REGULAR CUSTOMERS
through an advertising campaign big enough and aggressive enough to really make people ACQUAINTED with your store.

Judge L. C. Lindsey was around at the News office this morning to exchange congratulations on the rain. He has been all over the county selling fruit trees, and states that he never saw a finer prospect for a bumper crop of cotton and corn. The people have kept up with their work exceedingly well. He says he seen only two fields of corn that could be considered foul, and found but two who had to plant their cotton a second time. This certainly breaks all records.

Patrons of the Star theatre were given a treat last night in the vaudeville line when they saw Daiyye Dean & Wiel in a Singing, Dancing, Talking act of more than ordinary merit. ### MISS JERNIGAN EMPLOYED AS PASTOR'S ASSISTANT

Miss Mollie Jernigan, who for several years, has been with the News as clerical office manager, has resigned in large part her employment with the News and has accepted the position at the hands of the board of stewards of the First Methodist church as pastor's assistant which will employ two-thirds of her time. The other part of her time being engaged at the News office and with the Otis Weaver Fire Insurance Agency.

It was the decision of the board of stewards of the First Methodist church that its large and leading membership and the importance and comprehensiveness of the work outlined for the church by the Rev. Sweet, required an assistant for the pastor, which resulted in Miss Jernigan being offered such position and her acceptance of the tender.

TWO INDIANS CHARGED WITH COW STEAL

This afternoon two Indians, Mund Morgan and Jno. Harjo, were arraigned before Judge Brown on charge of stealing cattle from J. Self who lives near Francis. The alleged theft was committed about year ago, but it was only last week that one of the cows was located in the Seminole country. Deputy Sheriff Duncan brought the men in yesterday, and placed them in jail. Judge Brown fixed their bail at $1,000 each, their appearance Thursday, which being unable to give, they were returned to jail. Neither Indian could speak English.

HANDICAPPED

This Is the Case With Many Ada People.

Too many Ada citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills help sick kidneys. Can you doubt Ada evidence? E. L. Canterbury, Sixteenth St., Ada, Okla., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly, as they cured me of a distressing case of kidney complaint. My back was so weak at times that I was unable to work, in fact, found it difficult to walk. Dull, nagging pains through my loins also caused me great misery, and I had sharp twinges when I attempted to stoop or lift. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and caused me additional annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at G. M. Ramsey's Drug Store, rid me of kidney trouble and I have had no return attacks."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. You will find Chamberlain's Liniment wonderfully effective. One application will convince you of its merits. Try it. For sale by all dealers.
